Fun upon Fun.

Being an Account of the Beautiful, large, White Greenland Bear, lately arrived from DAVIS Streights, where he was taken upon an Island of Ice, sucking his Dam, now to be seen at Charing-Cross. How the High German Virtuoso at Convent-Garden Opera, sings like any thing. Of the arrival of the wonderful HYENA from the Desarts of Arabia, that changes Sexes, as often as some do Sides : and of many Ingenious Petitioning P—s lately caught in the High-lands. How a fat Militia Captain of Mile-end was scar'd to death. Who may, and who may not take Dr. WARD's Pills. Drop, and how PUNCH borrowing some stale jokes from his intimate CALEB D'ANVERS was deadly witty at the Masquerade. Also how 150 Creatures call'd PATRIOTS, are to be seen all alive about the Court of Requests, and are there so very harmless, that the least Child need not fear to go near them. How JOHN DEARLING and Comp. brew delicate Chichester Beer, while the Enemies to the Government brew no better than they bake. Of the famous outlandish Italian Eunuch's keeping the celebrated Madam PHILIPS, and of divers others that can't keep themselves : with variety of other delectable circumstances, worthy of Note, and admiration.

The first of these is the fact that the Government has been unable to secure the necessary funds to carry out its policy. This is due to a variety of reasons, including the fact that the Government has been unable to secure the necessary funds to carry out its policy.

Did you ever see the like?

O R,

F U N upon F U N.

AS the Town is at present brimful of good company, 'tis certainly very lucky that there happens to be so many Diversions going forward, to help kill

kill Time, and enliven Conversation ;
 Such as the beautiful white Bear, the miraculous Hyena, fiery Lynx, &c. But leaving the other Curiosities mention'd in the Title, to their more serious Consideration, I shall at present confine myself to a Description of the PATRIOTS, as they stile themselves, who not having any body to answer for them, (as in Cases of common Baptism) have been oblig'd to christen themselves : a Sett of wonderful Creatures ! never exhibited to View in any Age or Nation before ; and may be daily seen, (tho' I can't like a pocky Doctor aver) that it is to be done without loss of Time, or hindrance of Business.

A PATRIOT says the Learned I. B. Doctor of Physick, in his ENGLISH EXPOSITOR, is a Father, or Protector of his Country.
 'Tis evident from this Definition, that our Author had his Head full of Roman Worthies, who were ready to sacrifice their Lives, whenever their injur'd Country call'd for their Assistance ; and I'll be sworn never once thought of our modern

dern Gentry, who I'm persuaded denominate themselves so, for the same Reason the Latin's call a Wood Lucus, a non Lucendo, they no more resembling those Heroes of Antiquity, than a poor, humble, harmless Welch Curate, does the Right Reverend Dean Provincial to his G—E of C———Y.

Since there is no real Description of these Mock-Patriots, in any Writings I am acquainted with, the Publick must be contented with the Account they have been pleased to communicate of themselves, in their weekly Labours.

A PATRIOT in their Language then is one who bellows loudly for his Country, till he is paid for holding his Tongue, and feigns to be marvellously jealous of Power in any Hand but his own.

He pretends, That the necessary Supplies for the preservation of the People are

are

are burthensome because he's not loaded with Preferment :

That not to oppose the Administration right or wrong, denotes the mean Dispirit- edness of a Pricklouse, and that a young Fellow that does not abuse a first Minister in his Harangues, is not worth shaving and powdering.

That to be impudent is with them the highest integrity, and if any one has been in Rebellion, or traiterous conspiracies against the present ROYAL FAMILY, that is to be an undeniable proof of his Attach- ment to the House of Hanover.

That escaping from Justice, is a clear mark of Innocence, and that corresponding with, and abetting the Nation's Enemies, is only acting the part of a TRUE BRITON.

That to betray conversation, is the sign of a happy memory; and to stab a man we differ with, nice valour. That

That to vilify a Woman, is sheer Wit, and a Lord in Lawn, agreeable raillery. A Person of this Complexion not being in play, is the chief reason the publick Councils are pernicious, for how can the Nation be in a good way, while he himself is in a bad one?

That the King is a Ty—t, because he does not countenance with his favours the known Enemies to him and the Constitution.

That the Parliament must be hirelings and Pensioners, because they keep out the PRETENDER, he would bring to the Throne.

That the Ministers are infallibly Rogues and Blunderers, because there is now a War in Europe, and the Kings of F—e and Sp—n are so wilful as to act upon their own views, without asking our Privy Council leave.

That

That the administration are manifestly bent on ruining the trade and navigation of this nation, or to be sure they ought to have prevented the late High Wind; and the true reason of ITALY'S being so soon over-run by the confederate army, plainly appears, from an Embassador's not caring (we had at Paris some Years ago) whether his turn-over or ruffles had a competency of Clear-starching, and that the flap of his Coat pockets were equi-distant from his Elbows and Waistband.

That a People can't be said to be truly free, without licence to rail at their Governors, and print treasonable libels, whenever they please so to divert themselves.

That to excite the nation to a Rebellion, is having a due and tender regard to their privileges as Englishmen, which entitle them to commit murders and

and all manner of violence, in order to secure the Publick tranquility.

That mischievous Mobs and Riots, is the only method to arrive at Independancy; tho' if so insignificant a Person as I am may give my opinion, leading mistaken folks to the Gallows is making 'em dependant with a witness.

That Anarchy is a marvellous blessing to a Country, and that all Laws divine and humane, are so many marks of Slavery; unwarrantable checks to enterprising Genius's, and to be broke thorough by all zealous Assertors of real Liberty.

That the Bench of B—ps being Enemies to a POPISH RULER, is an infallible mark of their disregard to the C—h, and the Protestant Religion.

That for any Great Man to possess an estate honestly acquir'd, is a notorious ous infringment on the rights of those not worth a groat; and that one who is desirous of keeping his Wife to himself, must be of a damn'd, stingy, sneaking confin'd Way of Thinking, and unfit to live in a well-bred Society.

One of this Litter of Patriots, is not only possess'd of all the Integrity, consummate Wisdom, and Experience, necessary for steering the Helm of Government, (but if we may take their own modest Assurance in a late Address to the New Members) he is likewise endow'd with all the Wit and Humour of the three Kingdoms. The sole Patent for cracking of Jokes is vested in him, and all others are counterfeits, of which you are requested to beware. He alone is the original agreeable Companion, and marks out the stupid Dog who is dull enough to be in the Interest of his King and Country, as an Object of Contempt and low Ribbaldry: That no Man is to be allow'd a risible Faculty, but what are admitted to their Tables and Intimacy; and what is more dread-dreadful than all their Anathema's, that we may depend upon't no Woman of Fashion or Taste, will suffer a Leg to be laid over her, till she is credibly asfur'd her Admirer has aspers'd the Royal Family, and curs'd both them and the Ministry at the C—a Tree, and at D—y and that whoever has an inclination to be reckon'd polite or gay, must get drunk with these Beaus Esprits, or their ridicule will be indelibly fix'd upon him, as a sad, sober dependant.

But a farther inducement, (and as they flatter themselves not of the least weight) to inveigle many unwary well-disposed Christians to side with them is, these same virtuous and brilliant opposers of the welfare of Old England, are suddenly to have the disposal of all the great Employments of profit and Trust in Great Britain.

That

That if any new member dare vote even in a turnpike bill, with the present Administration, he must forfeit all expectations of ever being favour'd with so much as a Noon Waiter's place at the Custom-house, when they come in- to their Kingdom.

That their turn will come e'er long, for one cloudy morning, between the hours of eleven and two, the C—r of the E——r will be kick'd down Stairs, and immediately those prodigious Politicians, B——e and P—— are to be invited to take a Breakfast, and any Places they have a mind to :

That we may rely upon their Goodness, in accepting of the Service of the Crown, in order to betray those that trust 'em, according to ancient Usage.

That

That the glorious Task of restoring the indefeasible, unalienable Hereditary Line to the Throne, is reserv'd for their pious Performance, and to convince the whole World of their disinterested Views, they solemnly promise to be at the Expence of sending their M--j--s to H--r out of their own private Fortunes, without adding one Sixpence to the Land Tax upon the Article of Foreign Service.

These being among many other, some of the Tenets they hold, and the Methods to attain the unspotted Character beforemention'd, Let us pray the Creator of all Things (but such Creatures) so to direct our Steps, that we be not led into the Snares of the Ungodly, but that they may fall into the Pit they have digged for others, so that all true Believers may walk peaceably in the Paths of Righ- teousness, in due Obedience to the Au-D thority

thority set over us, and let our Enemies be confounded, and sore vexed : Let them be turned back and put to Shame suddenly. Amen,
